An Incomparable Figure of Azerbaijani National Music

Lankaran State University (LSU) held an event entitled “Uzeyir Hajibeyli 140: An Incomparable Figure of Azerbaijani National Music” to mark the 140th anniversary of the birth of the great Azerbaijani composer Uzeyir Hajibeyli.

The event highlighted the composer’s contributions to the development of Azerbaijani music, his rich artistic legacy, and his role in promoting national cultural heritage. University faculty members and students performed the National Anthem of the Republic of Azerbaijan live and presented scenes from the composer’s operetta Arshin Mal Alan, along with musical excerpts from his works. The event once again emphasised the importance of preserving Uzeyir Hajibeyli’s musical legacy and passing it on to future generations.

Scientific Seminar on the Literary Legacy of Bakhtiyar Vahabzadeh at Lankaran State University

Lankaran State University (LSU) held a scientific seminar entitled “Bakhtiyar Vahabzadeh: A Master of Words and Thought” to mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of the distinguished Azerbaijani poet, literary scholar, and public figure.

The seminar highlighted the poet’s contribution to the development of Azerbaijani literature, his academic and pedagogical work, his dedication to the Azerbaijani language, and the national and cultural values reflected in his literary works.

AHABZADƏ DEVİR Kİ...
“BƏXTİYAR VAHABZADƏ
SÖZÜN VƏ FİKRİN DAHİS
mövzusunda
ELMİ SEMİNAR

Concert at LSU Dedicated to the 75th Anniversary of Farhang Huseynov

Lankaran State University (LSU) hosted a concert and meeting dedicated to the 75th anniversary of the birth of renowned Azerbaijani composer and violinist, Honoured Artist Farhang Huseynov.

During the concert, members of Germany's LES ESSENCES string quartet performed excerpts from works by Azerbaijani and international composers.

Scientific Session at LSU Dedicated to Heydar Aliyev's Legacy and Earth Sciences

Lankaran State University (LSU) hosted a mobile scientific session dedicated to the 100th anniversary of National Leader Heydar Aliyev. Jointly organised by the Institute of Geology and Geophysics and the Lankaran Regional Scientific Centre of ANAS, the session addressed the development of Azerbaijan's agricultural sector, subtropical crop cultivation, the natural conditions of the Lankaran–Astara economic region, water resource ecology, and the role of science journalism.

The presentations examined Heydar Aliyev's contributions to agriculture, particularly the development of tea cultivation and citrus production, as well as the region's natural characteristics and the protection of water resources. At the end of the session, participants' questions were answered, and scientific publications of the Institute of Geology and Geophysics were donated to LSU's Scientific Library.

“You Are Such a Summit...” Concert at LSU

“You Are Such a Summit...” Concert at LSU

Lankaran State University (LSU) held a concert entitled “You Are Such a Summit...” to mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of National Leader Heydar Aliyev.

Students from LSU and the university’s Social and Agro-Technological College performed folk and composed songs that were among Heydar Aliyev’s favourites. The concert promoted Azerbaijani national identity, patriotism, and cultural values.

Lankaran State University (LSU) celebrated Novruz, Azerbaijan's national holiday.
To mark the occasion, the university's Main Assembly Hall was colourfully decorated, and a festive concert programme was organised with student participation. Humorous performances featuring Kosa, Kechel, and the Spring Girl were presented, alongside musical performances and dances. The celebration created a joyful atmosphere and contributed to promoting national traditions and cultural values.

NOVRUZ
LDU

NOVRUZ

New Year Carnival at LSU

Lankaran State University (LSU) held a “New Year Carnival” to celebrate the Day of Solidarity of World Azerbaijanis and the New Year.

The event began with a video presentation highlighting the university’s achievements, and active students were recognised with certificates of appreciation. LSU students performed a festive concert programme, while Father Frost and the Snow Maiden presented holiday gifts to children. Children from Lankaran’s No. 5 Children’s Home also joined the celebration, which featured songs, short performances, and dances. The carnival concluded with performances of the song “Azerbaijan” and the traditional Yalli dance.

AZƏRBAYCANLILARİNİN
MRƏYLİK GUNÜ VƏ
Nİ İLİNİZ MUBARƏK!
2026

ÇIXIŞ
EXIT

International Women's Day Celebrated at LSU

Lankaran State University (LSU) celebrated International Women's Day on 8 March. The university leadership's congratulatory message was conveyed to female staff members and students. The event highlighted the role of Azerbaijani women in society and their contributions to the development and achievements of LSU.

Female staff members recognised for their active involvement in university life received gifts, while flowers were presented to the women attending the event.

A concert featuring music and dance performances created a joyful and festive atmosphere.

