

Foreign Students at LSU

Lankaran State University is a modern and internationally oriented higher education institution that brings together students from different countries around the world. Here, foreign students have the opportunity not only to receive a quality education, but also to build their future in a safe, comfortable, and friendly environment.

The university stands out with its modern classrooms, professional academic staff, affordable tuition fees, and student-centered services. In addition to academic programs, international students can actively participate in conferences, seminars, projects, sports competitions, and cultural events.

Students studying at Lankaran State University gain not only a diploma, but also new friendships, international experience, and unforgettable life memories. Student life in Lankaran, one of the most beautiful regions of Azerbaijan known for its nature and hospitality, is truly memorable.

