
Delegation of Khalel Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University at LSU

A formal meeting was held at Lankaran State University with the delegation of Khalel Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University of Kazakhstan. During the meeting, the parties discussed the expansion of existing cooperation between the two higher education institutions, future opportunities for dual degree programs, and prospects for academic mobility.

They also evaluated the results of joint projects already implemented and exchanged views on further strengthening future cooperation. As part of the visit program, the Kazakh guests observed the teaching process at LSU and became closely acquainted with the university's academic environment.
