

L D U

1 9 9 2

LƏNKƏRAN DÖVLƏT UNİVERSİTETİ

Visual Arts at Lankaran State University

An Artistic Evening Dedicated to the 530th Anniversary of Muhammad Fuzuli at Lankaran State University

A literary and artistic evening dedicated to the 530th anniversary of the great Azerbaijani poet and thinker Muhammad Fuzuli was held at Lankaran State University. During the event, poems from the poet's works were recited, and musical compositions inspired by his poetry were performed. An exhibition of paintings and artworks created by university students, reflecting Fuzuli's literary legacy, was also presented.

www.reallygreatsite.com

Muhammad
Fuzuli
530

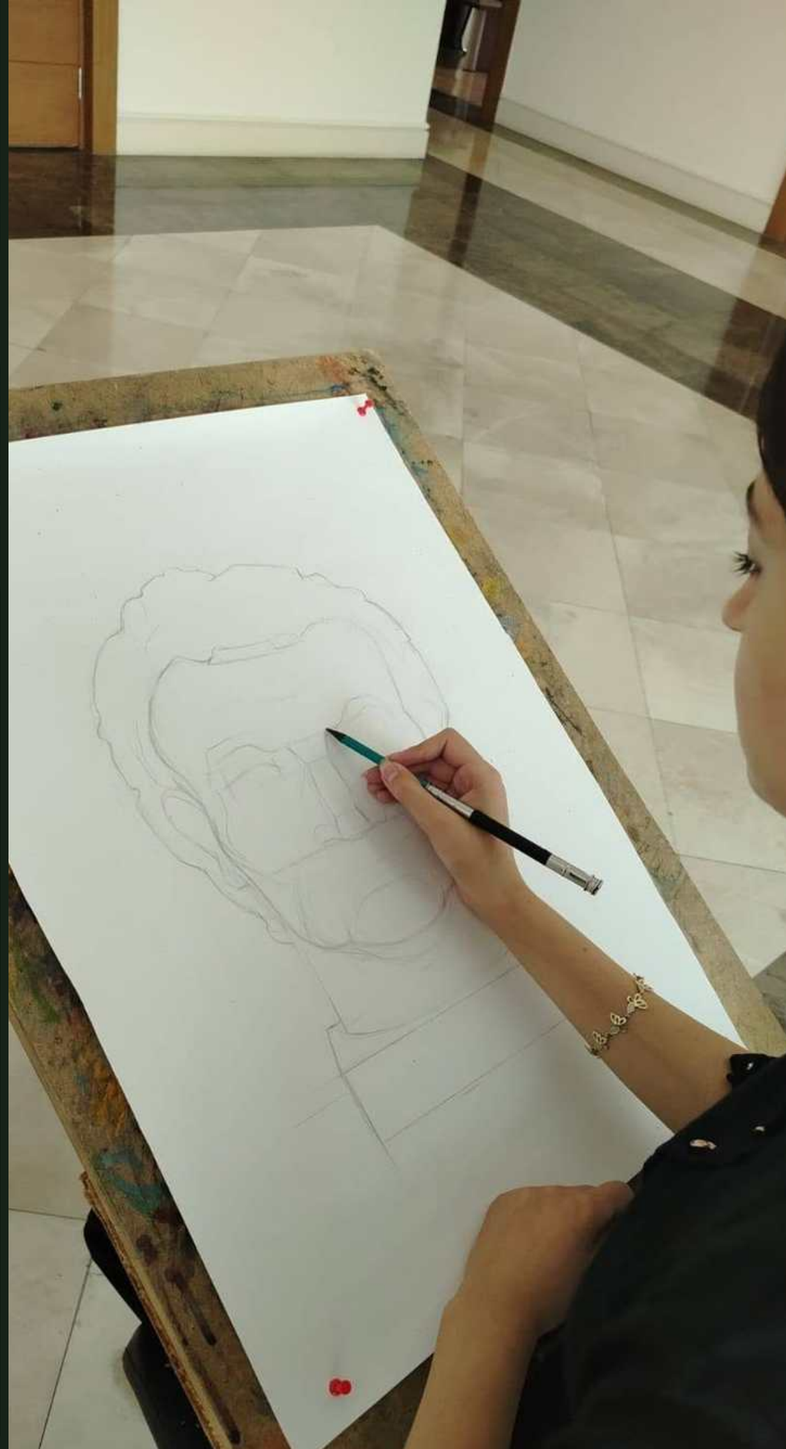

Students majoring in Fine Arts at Lankaran State University (LSU) create artwork on various themes during their classes, develop their creative skills, and strengthen their theoretical knowledge through practical activities.

“The Victory of a Nation – 28 May”

Student artworks dedicated to the 107th anniversary of the establishment of the Azerbaijan Democratic Republic were exhibited at Lankaran State University. The paintings reflected Azerbaijan’s independence, history of statehood, and national and moral values.

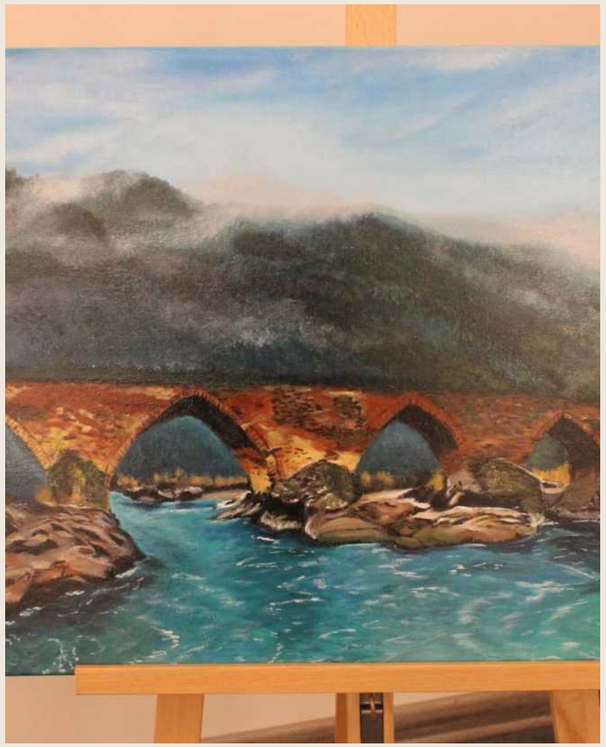

Paintings dedicated to the memory of martyrs have been created by students of Lankaran State University. The artworks reflect themes of love for the Motherland, heroism, remembrance of the martyrs, and the struggle to preserve the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan.

Photos of Paintings Dedicated to the “Year of Shusha”

ÇIXIŞ
EXIT

Şuşa