

LSU has Music Teaching specialty. Sufficient opportunities have been created for students studying here to practice comfortably. Students practice in music rooms, individually or in groups. Musical instruments and equipment in the practice rooms are accessible to every student. The practice rooms are at the service of students every day.

LSU has many facilities that enhance the musical environment for its students and faculty. The main music department of LSU consists of several practice rooms, rehearsal halls, and performance venues within its building. Following are some key features pertaining to the music facilities available at LSU:

1. Individual Getaway Rooms

Many well defined practice rooms are offered to LSU music students and these rooms have pianos, other instruments and some are soundproof. It gives the students a chance to practice or rehearse individually. Most of the students of Music Studies can practice here.

2. Music Performing Areas

Recital Hall: The LSU Recital Hall is a smaller performance space incorporating the ability for students to perform and practice solo or chamber works. it serves others as a venue for recitals and small concerts as well.

Large Ensemble Rehearsal Rooms: Larger practice areas, in which the LSU bands, orchestras, and choir perform their practice include these practice rooms. These practice rooms can be larger since their use is for a complete ensemble and also included in the Manship Music Building.

3. Soundproofing

Most of the practice rooms within LSU have either soundproof features or sound insulation that offer the students the luxury of practicing freely without the worry of disturbing other students. Such rooms can be quite advantageous especially for singers or instruments which are quite acoustically demanding.

4. Scheduling

Practice rooms are usually booked prior to usage. The method of reserving the practice room might be different from the rest depending on the department rules, undergraduate or graduate. Practice rooms are really large and light.

5. Other Facilities:

Moreover, the LSU School of Music offers other unique services such as:
Recording Studios for students in audio, recording and composition courses.
